Do I have to attend New Student Registration (NSR)?

Yes. All incoming students are required to attend the New Student Registration sessions followed by Orientation the weekend before classes. The material covered will be essential to your transition into Colorado Mountain College (i.e. placement tests, campus information on campus resources, advising and fine tuning spring class schedule, etc.). This also applies to transfer students.

- What is the fee for?
  - The fee charged ($160) for Orientation includes your food and housing during Orientation and covers the sessions and services utilized. The $130 is minus lodging for those allowed to live off campus.
  - The fee also covers all the Welcome Week events and activities that take place during the first week of the spring semester (January 10th through the 18th).
- How do I pay for New Student Registration?
  - Call 970-947-8200 and provide Credit Card information.
- When will I receive my New Student Registration Confirmation?
  - After you register for NSR online and your registration is processed, you will be sent an NSR confirmation email.
- When can I register for fall classes?
  - You will register for fall classes when you attend your NSR. You will meet with an advisor, and register.
