

GUATEMALA

Guatemala: Art and Resistance

Spend 9 days in Guatemala while earning 6 credits in Art and Political Science!

Study human rights and indigenous culture in this nine-day excursion to the Mayan highlands of Guatemala. Learn about Guatemalan weaving, painting, pottery, and architecture in the context of the country's tumultuous political and social history.

Highlights include:

- Visits to major art museums and meetings with artists
- Talks with political and cultural figures about human rights, civil war, and social justice
- Visits to Chichicastenango (including the huge artisan market), Santiago Atitlan and Guatemala City
- An outing to the ancient Mayan site of Tikal

Register for:

POS 215: Current Political Issues
ART 208: Culture Studies

Course begins Feb. 12, 2010

Travel Dates: March 5-14, 2010

Cost: $2990 + CMC tuition
(includes airfare, lodging, meals and all other program-related expenses)

Registration and payment
deadline:

December 11th, 2009
(fee nonrefundable after this date)

Register early—this course will fill fast!

Colorado Mountain College

For more information:

Bob Gumbrecht: rgumbrecht@coloradomtn.edu—(970) 870-4484
Cynthia Zyzda: czyzda@coloradomtn.edu—(970) 870-4432