It is critical to purchase the text and access code before the course start date.

You may also purchase textbooks for Online Learning and Interactive Video (IVS) classes through Follett, our new book vendor. Order online at www.coloradomtn.bkstr.com. Students should have their course code and synonym number ready when ordering (see above). You will need to identify your program as "Online Learning & IVS" rather than the physical campus where you take classes.

Page 5 of this syllabus offers details on the purchase of this text and access code. Purchase a new text and access code from Follett. Used texts will not have a valid access code. The access code allows students to see all the information that is included under Modules and Quizzes. Students must view this link in order to be successful in the course.

Please inform the instructor during orientation if English is not your first language.

No-show reporting and financial aid: If you have not completed your introductory assignment in Canvas by Tuesday, January 22nd you will be reported as a no-show and dropped from the course. The resultant loss in credit hours may cause a reduction and/or cancellation of your financial aid award. Neither financial aid awards nor class reinstatement can occur after this point without significant documented extenuating circumstances. If you have questions or concerns about this please contact your campus financial aid specialist. www.coloradomtn.edu/web/departments/financial_aid

Computer Access:

Online courses require frequent computer use and access to the internet. It is highly recommended that students have a personal computer for use in online courses. If you need to use a computer at your local Colorado Mountain College location, you will be able to do so during open lab hours. Please check with your local site for times. Labs will not be available for Elluminate sessions, if included as part of your course, due to the verbal interaction involved.

If you have general questions about online learning, please contact Colorado Mountain College Online Learning at 800-621-8559, extension 8341 or virtual@coloradomtn.edu.

A Few Words About Microsoft Word

Microsoft Word is the standard word processing program for the majority of CMC instructors. Students without Microsoft Word may use the free software from www.OpenOffice.org to create Word-compatible documents. The program also includes spreadsheet, presentation, drawing, and database applications. The program is available for Windows, Macintosh, or Linux operating systems. Microsoft Word is installed on computers available in computer labs at CMC locations.
