No-show reporting and financial aid: If you have not completed your introductory assignment(s) in Canvas by Tuesday, January 22nd you will be reported as a no-show and dropped from the course. The resultant loss in credit hours may cause a reduction and/or cancellation of your financial aid award. Neither financial aid awards nor class reinstatement can occur after this point without significant documented extenuating circumstances. If you have questions or concerns about this please contact your campus financial aid specialist. (www.coloradomtn.edu/web/departments/financial_aid)

"We can't solve problems by using the same kind of thinking we used when we created them."
Albert Einstein

II. Course Description:

Contemporary Social Problems explores current social issues that result in societal problems. It focuses on such issues as civil liberties, gender discrimination, substance abuse, crime, poverty, and social change. GT-SS3

III. Student Learning Outcomes, Competencies, and Skills:

(Colorado Guaranteed Transfer General Education)

Upon completion of this course, the student should be able to:

- A. Summarize the principal perspectives on social problems.
- B. Define principal social problems in contemporary American society.
- C. Analyze the causes of these problems.
- D. Explain the conditions of health care, mental illness, substance abuse, sex-related problems, violence, poverty and affluence, racism and prejudice, and environment problems.
- E. Formulate suggested solutions for the above social problems.
- F. Estimate/calculate the costs of various social problems and the cost of suggested solutions.

IV. IDEA Student Ratings of Instruction:

1. Gaining factual knowledge (terminology, classifications, methods, trends).
2. Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, or theories.
3. Learning to apply course material (to improve thinking, problem solving, and decisions).

V. Methods and Class Management:

We will be covering six chapters out of eight (your choice of chapters) in the text Social Problems by John J. Macionis, 2010 Census Update Edition, 4th edition, which correspond to the main course objectives. The chapters to be covered are: Chapters 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 8, 9, and 16 and include the introduction; inequalities in wealth, race, and gender; violence; addictions; mental health; and environmental issues.

The assignments are summarized below (please log into Canvas for more information):

A. 6 Chapter Summaries (these can be turned in either as a paper that is 2-3 double-spaced, typed pages; OR a 6-slide Powerpoint presentation; or you can choose to write a song, poem, or short story, make a poster board, or create a video for the chapter summaries). Choose 6 chapters. 15 points each.

B. 1 discussion board assignment: Introductions. 10 points.

Extra Credit: You may finish all assignments as early as you wish. Each chapter summary (worth 10 points) that is submitted on or before the suggested due date is given 3 extra credit points. This means that, if you turn in 5 chapter summaries of your choosing on or before the summary's suggested due date, you will have earned 15 extra credit points. Discussions for each chapter can also earn 2 extra credit points.

No Late Penalty: There is no penalty for late assignments, but allowing enough time for incorporating instructor feedback on your chapter summaries will probably result in a better grade for the next summary. Suggested due dates are given to increase the chances of your success in finishing coursework before the end of class.

Submit your assignments through Canvas. All assignments are explained and posted in Canvas. Feel free to email or call me if you have any questions, or if you are having any difficulties in the course.

If you need assistance in understanding the chapter content, there are PowerPoint lectures available on Canvas for each chapter (under the Pages tab). There are also PowerPoint summaries about special topics mentioned in the chapter and website links if you are interested in a more in-depth analysis of a topic. Informative videos about the chapter's content are embedded in each week's announcement.

VIII. Other Information:

Canvas

Canvas by Instructure is the online learning management system (LMS) used by Colorado Mountain College. You access Canvas via your web browser, i.e.: Mozilla/Firefox, Internet Explorer, Opera, etc. Students, faculty and staff members use the CMC Canvas site to access course announcements, documents, research links and library resources, to receive and deliver completed assignments, take tests, and to communicate with each other via email, discussion boards and chat.

For instructions on How to Access your Canvas Account, Canvas How To's, and who to contact for all your Canvas questions and support needs, please visit:
www.coloradomtn.edu/web/departments/faq-for-students.

Student Email

All CMC students enrolled in a credit-based class (0.5 hour credit class or more) will be assigned a CMC student email address through Google mail (Gmail). Please allow at least 48 hours after you register for this account to be activated. For more information on your CMC student email account, please visit the Student page of the MyCMC Portal:
mycmc.coloradomtn.edu.

A Few Words About Microsoft Word

Microsoft Word is the standard word processing program for the majority of CMC instructors. Students without Microsoft Word may use the free software from www.OpenOffice.org to create Word-compatible documents. The program also includes spreadsheet, presentation, drawing, and database applications. The program is available for Windows, Macintosh, or Linux operating systems. Microsoft Word is installed on computers available in computer labs at CMC locations.
